IMPORTANT RISK DISCLOSURES

An investment in SQN Asset Income Fund V, LP involves a high degree of risk and there can be no assurance that the investment objectives of this program will be attained. Some of the risks associated with this offering include the following: no prior operating history; “blind pool” offering; this is a “best efforts” offering and some or all of our shares may not be sold; our ability to diversify our portfolio will depend on our ability to raise funds in this offering; no public market currently exists for our shares; it may be difficult to sell your shares, and if you do, it will likely be at a substantial discount; fees to affiliates, illiquidity, leveraging, and performance may be affected by unanticipated declines in residual value or changes in the market; there are material federal income tax risks associated with the offering of the fund’s units; Investors will be required to bear the financial risks of this investment for an indefinite period of time. A substantial portion, and possibly all, of the cash distributions you receive from the fund will be a return of capital and not a return on capital, and the amount and rate of cash distributions could vary and are not guaranteed; the amounts paid as cash distributions will reduce the amount of funds available for investment in equipment, as a result investors should not need to rely on the cash distributions as a regular source of cash.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission, nor any state securities regulator has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if the prospectus is truthful or complete. The fund is not registered under the investment company act. Accordingly, the act’s provisions (which, among other matters, require investment companies to have a majority of disinterested directors) will not be applicable. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense. Images are for illustrative purposes only.
